Joy Potential: Where You'd Least Expect It

In a state of chaos, anything is possible. We have an opportunity to shake up our lives and create more happiness. Our time here is limited. Where do you put your attention? Do you create and experience - fear or joy?

At a crossroads in life and not knowing which direction to go, I find myself taking a temporary graveyard shift job to help pay the bills. During the course of this one week assignment I discover the negative patterns and cycles ingrained since birth. It becomes clear how these mistaken beliefs create fear and roadblocks in my life. It's time for a change!

A new perspective is created as John the Supervisor and Leonora, Quality Control, guide me through the unknown, overcoming fear, to a place where I see new paths and opportunities. "Moving from a place of questioning one's worth, to a place where I do something that significantly improves a stranger's life is a massive shift." I am led down a path where my hobby, Internet-based radio, becomes a major source of Joy Potential.

Reviews/Comments:

"This story was fun to read with a few twists and turns, yet the experiences and lessons could apply to so many people. Any one of us could be any one of the characters in this story. The author has the ability to deliver some very sage advice and life changing concepts without the reader feeling like they are being lectured to and without feeling like they are reading another of the thousands of 'self-help' books written by 'spiritual gurus'. Thank you for sharing an inspirational message in a very entertaining way." ~ Chris, Host of Curious Times Radio Show

"Joy Potential is a wonderful and inspirational story about seeking ones personal joy. I couldn't put it down! I found myself enthralled as I read deeper into the pages, needing to hear the next message and/or the next lesson. The style in which R.P. Sharpe writes reminded me many times of how I've excused synchronistic events in my own life. Not anymore!! Joy Potential equals Self-discovery." ~Lyn Ragan, Author of We Need To Talk: Living With The Afterlife; Wake Me Up! A True Love Story About Life After Death & Berc's Inner Voice

It's No Secret: Spirituality BITES

You can STOP SEARCHING for your 'spiritual path' because YOU'RE ON IT!

This book DOES NOT contain any Earth-shattering revelations. I do not pretend to have any special knowledge that will forever change your life and make it full of love and bliss and completely free of negativity!

What this book DOES contain are observations and bits of awareness that I have gained from the hundreds of self-help and spiritually-focused guests I have had on my Bringing Inspiration To Earth Show.

Some of the Insights include:

- The Law of Dis-traction
- It's All About ME ... and My Choices
- Well, What Do You Expect?
- Ungrateful So-and-So
- Leave Your Judgments at the Door
- Forget the So-Called 'Experts'
- It's No Coincidence
- In Your Dreams
- Thank God for Unanswered Prayers

Also included are 60+ Actions I (and show guests) have taken to make life better and less stressful, based on those observations. Some may work for you, some may not.

But even if there is ONLY ONE action that you take to improve your life experience, then the time you spend reading this book will have been worth while.
